

Arriving at the Schulich School of Music by Metro

If you are travelling to the Schulich School of Music by metro from within Montreal, take the green line of the metro to McGill station. If you are approaching by travelling East (which on the green line is signalled as “Direction Honoré-Beaugrand”) exit near the front of the train; if you are approaching by travelling West (Direction Angrignon) then exit near the back of the train.

After you pass through the turnstiles you will be facing an underground entrance to the department store The Bay. Resist the temptation to go in, and instead turn left and head up the escalator. Emerge onto Union Street and turn right, walking up a slight incline toward Sherbrooke Street, where across the road, facing you, you will see the Strathcona Music Pavillion. Turn right and cross at the lights. On the corner at 527 Sherbrooke is the New Music Building.

Emerge from Metro here

Walk to here, 527 Sherbrooke West

“Old” Music Building (the Strathcona Music Pavillion), 555 Sherbrooke

“New” Music Building (the Elizabeth Wirth Music Pavillion), 527 Sherbrooke

Come into this building, this is where the conference is.